Challenges for Organising and Collective Bargaining in Care, Administration and Waste collection sectors in Central Eastern European Countries

Aim of the workshop: To discuss with relevant stakeholders changes needed to increase collective bargaining in Slovakia, Hungary and Czechia.

The workshop is organized within CEECAW project - a groundbreaking initiative aimed at transforming the future of collective bargaining in three critical sectors (care services, public administration, and waste management) across Central and Eastern Europe (CEE) and Serbia. This initiative aims to empower trade unions and elevate sectoral engagement in line with the EU's Directive on Adequate Minimum Wages.

Program:

09:00 - 09:20 Opening and introducing the project (Marta Kahancová/Barbora Holubová)

09:20 - 09:30 EPSU's role in social dialogue and the project (EPSU)

09:30 - 10:00 Increasing collective bargaining coverage in EU countries - the overview
(Torsten Muller, ETUI;)

Overview of the project findings in CEE countries (Barbara Surdykowska, ISP)

10:00 - 10:30 Findings from the research on perspectives of collective bargaining in Czechia, Hungary and Slovakia (CELSI)

10:30 - 12:30 Roundtable of sector specific topics in care, central public administration and waste management sector

Participants: Representatives from Slovakia, Czechia, Hungary and EPSU

12:30 - 13:30 Lunch

13:30 - 15:00 Public debate on increasing collective bargaining coverage:
“Bargaining for better pay?” (co-organized with Euractiv.sk, streamed)

Panelists:

- František Gajdoš (KOZ SR)
- Monika Martišková (CELSI)
