

UNLOCKING THE POTENTIAL OF INCLUSIVE GROWTH AT THE LOCAL LEVEL

Support for a rich dialogue between employers, unions,
local governments and other stakeholders

24 - 25th October 2019

Venue:

Slovakia
Radisson Blu Carlton Hotel
Hviezdoslavovo nám 3, 81102 Bratislava

#ForumEU11

PROGRAMME

Thursday, 24th October 2019

12:00	Arrival of participants and lunch
13:00	Opening and welcome remarks Matthias Weber, Director of FES Regional Project on Labour Relations and Social Dialogue The 2018 Forum highlights and follow up Martin Kahanec, Scientific Director of CELSI
13:30	Keynote session: State-of-art of inclusive growth at the local level - looking for the potential Aleš Chmelař, Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic Monika Uhlerová, Vice-President of the Confederation of Trade Unions of the Slovak Republic
14:30	Inclusive growth in Central and Eastern Europe and the role of social partners Marta Kahancová, Managing Director of CELSI
15:00	Coffee Break

WORKSHOPS

15:30	Presenting and discussing 3 success stories of collaboration towards inclusive growth at local level:
Workshop Nr.1	Constructive partnerships of the Educators and Scientists Free Trade Union of Georgia to support policy changes in education and organize teachers in the regions Maia Kobakhidze, President of Educators and Scientists Free Trade Union of Georgia Mari Alugishvili, Executive Vice-President of Educators and Scientists Free Trade Union of Georgia
Workshop Nr.2	Job Security Councils in Sweden to support the Swedish Public Employment Service in facilitating employment as one of the principles of inclusive growth Samuel Engblom, Swedish Confederation of Professional Employees
Workshop Nr.3	Regional Tripartite Councils in Lithuania to boost cooperation and social dialogue at the local level Tomas Jakutavičius, Youth president of the Lithuanian Trade Union Confederation
19:00	Dinner

Friday, 25th October 2019

09:00	Towards inclusive growth at the local level: lessons for CEE countries from the workshops Workshop moderators Summary Marta Kahancová, CELSI
10:00	Coffee Break
10:30	Ideas for broadening cooperation and interaction of various stakeholders in the labour market Panel discussion Anton Marcinčin, Economist at the Ministry of Finance of the Slovak Republic Victoria Stoiciu, Programme Coordinator at FES Romania Josef Štědula, President of the Czech-Moravian Confederation of Trade Unions Barbara Worek, Researcher at the Polish Institute of Sociology
12:00	Lunch and departure