

CURRICULUM VITAE

IMRE GERGELY SZABÓ

MÁTYÁS TÉR 13, II.EM. 8., H-1084 BUDAPEST, HUNGARY

0036305581309

szabo.imre.gergely@gmail.com

EDUCATION

- PhD in Political Science, 2011-
Central European University, Budapest
Prospective title of the dissertation:
Public sector employment as a social protection
mechanism in East Central Europe
- MA in Political Science, with distinction 2009-2010
Central European University (CEU), Budapest
Cumulative GPA: 3.97 (Av. Class GPA: 3.41, Class Size: 42) Certificate in Political Economy (earned 14 credits in courses related to this specialization)
core subjects: Concepts of Political Economy, Research Design, Understanding Social Science Statistics, Introduction to Contemporary Political Philosophy, Topics and Methods in Comparative Politics
- MA (Diploma) in International Relations (5-year programme) 2003-2009
Corvinus University of Budapest
grade of diploma: excellent
Major in European Studies, Minor in EU translator in English

HONOURS AND AWARDS

- CEU Outstanding Academic Achievement Award 2010
- Hungarian State Scholarship 2008

PUBLICATIONS

- article (in Hungarian):
Destined to success: the political economy of market reforms in the early phase of post-communist transition. In: Fordulat. Summer 2009
- working paper, co-authored with Marta Kahancová:
Acting on the Edge of Public Sector: Hospital Corporatization and Collective Bargaining in Hungary and Slovakia. FP7 GUSTO WP 6 paper, in: Governance of Uncertainty and Sustainability at Sectoral and Territorial Levels
- book review (in English)
And yet it moves... on "The Politics of Welfare State Reform in Continental Europe – Modernization in Hard Times" by Silja Häusermann.
CEU Political Science Journal, February 2012 (vol. 7, no. 1)
- book review (in Hungarian)
"Culture as a comparative advantage?" on "The wealth and poverty of nations" by David S. Landes. In: Progresszív Politika 2008 spring-summer
- translations from English into Hungarian for social science journals Replika and Fordulat
-

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

research assistant

february 2011-september 2011

GUSTO Project of the European Commission's Seventh Framework Programme

supervisor: Dorothee Bohle, CEU

main responsibilities: employment relations and collective agreements in the Hungarian healthcare sector

TEACHING

tutor 2006-
Special College for the Advanced Study of Social Theory,
Corvinus University of Budapest
critical political economy, capitalism and democracy, critical political economy

MEMBERSHIPS

CEU Political Economy Research Group 2010 september

EMPLOYMENT

researcher january 2009-september 2009
public policy analysis
(Hungarian foreign and EU policy)
DEMOS Hungary Foundation

journalist june 2008- january 2009
international finance and economics section
Napi Gazdaság (Daily Economics)

LANGUAGES

Hungarian: native
English: proficient speaking, reading and writing
French: good speaking, writing and reading
German: good speaking and writing, strong reading
